Note: GF=General Fund

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

This bill requires the Secretary of the State (SOTS), in consultation with the State Elections Enforcement Commission (SEEC), to prepare and publish on the Internet a voter guide for each state election.

Candidates for U.S. President and vice-president, U.S. senator, member of Congress, the constitutional offices, and the state legislature are required to pay a $25 fee to have their photograph and biographical information published on the Internet voter guide. This will result in a general fund revenue gain. The revenue generated is dependent on the number of candidates who submit material for the Internet voter guide.

In the 2002 gubernatorial election, there were 386 candidates for the U.S. congressional districts, constitutional offices, and state legislature. If all 386 candidates submitted material for the Internet voter guide and paid the $25 fee there would be a revenue gain of $9,650. It is not anticipated that every candidate will participate in the Internet voter guide.

The SOTS is not expected to incur costs to develop the Internet voter guide in FY 04, as the voter guide does not need to be completed until October 1, 2004. The SOTS will incur a workload increase and minimal costs in FY 05 to develop and host the Internet voter guide on its website. It is uncertain at this time whether the revenue from the Internet voter guide fees will be sufficient to cover the development and website hosting costs.

This bill is not expected to have a fiscal impact on the SEEC.

HB 6092

AN ACT CONCERNING A VOTER GUIDE FOR STATE ELECTIONSSUMMARY:

This bill requires the secretary of the state, in consultation with the State Elections Enforcement Commission (SEEC), to prepare and publish on the Internet a voter guide for each state election. She must complete it by October 1 in the even-numbered years.

The voter guide must include:

1. a photograph and biographical and contact information submitted by each candidate for the offices of U.S. President and vice-president, U.S. senator and member of Congress, the six state constitutional offices, and the state legislature;
2. maps showing the boundaries of congressional and state legislative districts;
3. a description of each office to be filled;
4. an absentee ballot application form in printable format with instructions on how to vote by absentee ballot;
5. a voter registration form in printable format with information on voter registration procedures; and
6. the text of each proposed constitutional amendment, if any, and the explanatory text for it.

Party-nominated and qualified petitioning candidates for the offices included in the guide may submit their photographs and biographical and contact information. A state central party committee may file the photographs and information on behalf of its candidates for U.S. President, vice-president, U.S. senator, and representative.

The candidates have one week after the primary for state offices to file the material with the secretary of the state and pay a $25 fee. They must file in an electronic format that the secretary prescribes, in consultation with the SEEC. The photograph and information cannot be changed in any way unless a candidate withdraws all the information from the guide for that election.

In the Internet voter guide, each candidate gets the equivalent of one printed page that includes the statement: "Photograph, Biographical Information and Contact Information Provided by the Candidate." Each candidate's biographical information must be 150 words or less. Photographs of all the candidates must be black and white, the same size as prescribed by the secretary, and no more than two years old.

The bill authorizes the secretary, in consultation with the SEEC, to adopt regulations to implement the preparation and publication of the voter guide.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2004
